-Lately at a horse show in London a novelty was exhibited in the form of a vehicle capable of being changed at pleasure into a fourwheeled or a two-wheeled carriage. In the former condition it is capable of carrying six persons. By a simple contrivance the whole front carriage, wheels, wings and dasher, can be removed, and the back part then forms a pretty car for one horse or pony. The change is effected merely by loosening four screws, and can be managed in a few minutes.

-The Savannah papers announce the death of Mr. William Kine, an estimable citizen of that place. He was born in the neighborhood of Brighton, England. He went to France and was in the City of Paris during the revolution of 1830. His adventurous spirit caused him o come to this country, and for a time h pursued his occupation, that of a machinist, in the City of Charleston, his partner being Mr. Robert Luchlison. He was engaged in the construction of the first railroad in Fouth Carolina, in 1832. He next visited Cuba and briefly followed his pro ession there, subsequently coming to Savannah of which city he has been a resident for the last thirty-five years. He discharged the duties of superintendent of the machine shops at the Central Rai road depot for nearly fifteen years. After a visit to Europe he returned to Savannah, and erected a saw mill on the canal. He was local inspector of steamboats in the government service since 1853. At the time of his death he was sixtyfour years of age. He leaves a wife and one child to mourn his loss.

-A correspondent who recently had an interview with ex-President Franklin Pierce, says: "During the past two years the health of the general has not been remarkably good; but with the exception of about three weeks during the past winter, he has been able to ride and walk out almost daily. During the interval reterred to he was quite low for severu days, and his medical attendants and his friends entertained serious fears of the result. With careful nursing and smiful treatment he Ozercame a sickness which promised to result for years. In appearance he seems younger than when the Presidential mantie rested upon him. Those who remember him in Washington would readily recognize him in Concord, BIORDAR, DAWSON & CO., however, for he maintains the smooth and clean-shaved face which always was one of bis characteristics, and his broadcloth and beaver are still of the same spotless black, and the same elegant and tidy fit. His step is as sprightly as that of a young man of twenty."

-They have been three years boring an artesian well near St. Louis. The depth reached is 3832 feet, or only 188 feet less than threefourths of a mile. But no pure water has been reached at that depth, and it is now proposed so far. The boring was done at the rate of about thirty feet per month. The artesian well PAYMENT invariably in advance. No paper sent at Grenoble in France, is one of the most famous in the world, and was begun in 1888 with the expectation of reaching water at a depth of not more than twelve or fifteen hundred feet. In 1841, at a depth of 1792 feet, water was at last found, and has flowed ever since at a rate of five hundred thousand galions in twenty-four hours. There are numerous wells in other parts of Europe and also in this country, but the deepest one in the world, except that now under consideration, is at a sugar refinery in St. Louis, begun in the spring of 1849, and continued until 1854, when the work stopped at the depth of 2199 feet. The supply of water procured is comparatively small in quantity, and strongly impregnated with sul-

The Blue Ridge Job-Scott's Tactics.

The silence which Governor Scott and his claquers have maintained in regard to the charges of jobbery and corruption in the award of the Blue Ridge Railroad contract, made several days ago by our correspondent "Lux," is as discreet as it is significant. In fact, nobody is so well aware as the Governor and his copartners, of the brazen and shameless character of their attempt to plunder the people of South Carolina, and they have wisely chosen not to venture upon a discussion which could only have the effect of further unmasking the giant swindle they have in view. If any hing were wanting to fasten apon our enterprising Governor the charge of wilful and deliberate perversion of his official powers for his individual enrichment, the evidence is abundantly supplied in the second letter from our correspondent

"Lux," which we print to-day. What are the facts? A railroad is to be built, on which four millions have been already spent. The whole of the capital stock. excepting an inconsiderable fraction, is owned by the State and the City of Charleston, and consequently controlled by Governor Scott and Mayor Pillsbury. The cost of completing the road having been calculated at about six millions, the Legislature was induced to guarantee four millions of its bonds. Thereupon bids were publicly invited for the work, to be paid for in 6 per cent, coin bonds of the road, guaranteed by the State. Several offers were made by contractors of unquestionable standing, and the bid of a Pennsylvania firm was accepted at nine millions, notwithstanding that this was the highest bona fide bid presentedone of the other hidders aware map as som petent and responsible, having been eager to do the work for seven and a half millions. All the circumstances of the award point unmistakably to the fact that Governor Scott was to be a silent partner in the profits make out of the contract, and that the acceptance of the Pennsylvania offer being a predetermined fact, the invitation extended to the other bidders, as well as the consideration seemingly accorded to their bids, was a magnificent sham throughout. But this is not all. The whole scheme, as it stands, depends for its success upon the ability of those interested to obtain from the General Assembly the State guarantee for five millions more of the bonds of the road. The Governor has undertaken to make the modest demand that the Legislature should change the act of the last session so that the State guarantee may be made to cover nine millions instead of four millions. Until this is done the four millions already guaranteed are unavailable; for, if they would used, the additional five millions of bonds to be guaranteed would necessarily come in only as a second mortgage. In the delay payers of the State being able to defeat the boldest and most flagrant attempt ever Assets...... 1,500,000 made to bleed the public treasury of South Carolina.

In this connection we hear talk of a monstrous proposition that the State and the City of Charleston should cancel the $2,-800,000 worth of the stock of the road which they now held, and accept in lieu thereof one fifth of the amount in second mortgage six per cent. (ourrency) bends, which, in view of the recent operations of the Ring in Columbia, we may safely say, would be absolutely worthless. It is even said in some quarters that this most outrageous barter of the people's property has already been consummated. But however unblushing may have been the proceedings of Governor Scott in his manipulation of the State finances, we cannot and will not believe that Mayor Pillsbury, at the very threshold of his administration, would have dared to share the responsibility of so iniquitous a transaction. The Blue Ridge Railroad is a public work of incalculable, importance to the future of South Carolina, and we yield to none in eagerness for its completion. But we call upon the real friends of the enterprise in every part of the State to join with THE NEWS in an earnest and persistent effort to resoue it from the Ring of greedy and unscrupulous adventurers who now control it. The Legialature can block the whole game. And the people will demand that it be done.

The Northern Bondhelder and the Southern Stockholder.

The bragging announcements made in regard to the finances of the State, and the advertisement of the State Treasurer, wou'd naturally lead to the supposition that the interest on the bonds and stocks of the State would be paid on and after July 1st. f ataly, and he is to-day in the enjoyment of But this is not the case. The coupons of

A CONTRACTOR OF THE PARTY OF TH

THE DAILY NEWS. | better physical health than he has possessed | the bonds have been paid on presentation in New York or Columbia, but not one dollar has been paid on account of interest on the State stock, due and promised to be paid at the same time. The bondholder has been provided for, but the stockholder has no assurance that he will be paid. Is the stockholder to take his chances and be dependent on the prompt collection of taxes? The reason given for the failure to pay the stock interest, is that it required over a month to make out a list of stockholders and of the dividends due them This is no excuse. The work should to plug the hole up and lose $66,000, the cost have begun earlier, and the lists would then have been ready by July 1st, as was

> The truth is that the bonds are mostly held by Northern speculators, while the stock is in the hands of our own people. The poor and needy, the widow and the or phan, may wait and starve; but the bondholding pets of Scott and the Financial Agent must not suffer. No doubt a heavy rate of interest is given for the money used in paying the coupons of the bonds, and a large amount of collaterals, in the shape of bonds and bills, has probably been hypothecated to secure the loan. But why should the bondholder have the preference over the stockholder? And if the stockholder is now put off to the first of August, why may he not be put off in the same way to October or November?
